

Chrysalis Dolls Custom Doll Purchase Promissory Note

Any and all payments are non-refundable and made in lawful money of the United States.

By making the non-refundable down payment of $150.00 towards the purchase of a Custom Doll the Purchaser agrees to all terms.

Purchaser agrees and promises to pay to Chrysalis Dolls the remaining balance due within thirty days of being notified that doll is completed.

Chrysalis Dolls agrees and promises to hold and protect completed doll for a total of thirty days without the requirement of additional fees.

Chrysalis Dolls agrees and promises prompt shipment of purchase (usually within three business days) once full payment is received.

In the event final payment is past thirty days of completion notification, a $35 fee for each ten days extension past doll completion notification date will be required.

After thirty days extended period or a total of sixty days past completion notification date, if balance is not fully paid then down payment and all other payments are automatically forfeited and the doll will be returned to stock.

No verbal or other agreement will modify this contract. All terms are final to protect both parties.

At any time contract can be cancelled by purchaser but the down payment and all other payments will not be refunded and will be considered forfeited. However, all payments made will be available if purchaser should ever decide on a separate purchase.
